A photograph of a baseball player in a dark uniform and helmet sliding into a base. A catcher's leg and glove with a baseball are visible in the foreground. The scene is dusty and backlit, creating a dramatic effect.

Global Sports Law Group

All firms have professionals with the highest level and broad experience on sports, tax, corporate, financial and labor law, among others, as well as compliance, best practices and money laundering prevention

Our firms both internally and with the support of specialized external professionals in each field, have the capacity to advise professional teams and athletes, in matters such as:

- » Drafting and negotiation of representation agreements, marketing and sponsorships;
- » Negotiation of professional sports agreements;
- » Negotiation of sports related financing and investments;
- » Promotion, marketing and sponsorships;
- » Labor, corporate, tax and IP matters related to professional sports, both teams and athletes;
- » Immigration petitions related to sports, both for professional teams and athletes;
- » Auditing and best practices manuals, compliance and money laundering prevention;
- » Dispute resolution, litigation, arbitration and other sports jurisdictional instances.
